STEELPAC
A Worthington Industries Company

Steelpac Operating Policy

Worthington Steelpac Systems designs and manufactures our customer's steel shipping platforms and racking systems for various end uses. Guided by the Worthington Philosophy, we are committed to serving:

Our Company

Steelpac is committed to managing our costs and improving profitability, thereby ensuring our long-term success. We will monitor and measure our critical processes, identify opportunities and drive innovative improvement, for the benefit of our shareholders, employees, customers and suppliers.

Our People

Our successes are a product of our people and we aspire to provide a safe work environment and create a world class Safety Culture. We believe that it is the company's responsibility to ensure that our system complies with all applicable regulations and requirements and that it is each employee's responsibility to work safely and participate in safety programs. As a team, we work to continually improve our Safety Management System.

Our Customers

Without our customers and their needs for our products, we have nothing. With our unwavering commitment to our customers and continual improvement, each employee ensures that the customer's quality, delivery and design requirements are met.

Our Community

Steelpac is committed to being a good corporate citizen. We consistently comply with all relevant legislation, regulations and requirements. We are committed to reducing, reusing and recycling materials where appropriate. Each employee is empowered to minimize waste, prevent pollution and continually improve our Environmental Management System.
